West Coast Life Insurance Company

INDEPENDENT AGENT'S AGREEMENT

The Company hereby appoints the Agent to represent the Company in those states and areas in which the Agent is properly licensed for procuring applications for life and health insurance and annuities.

It is the Agent's responsibility to comply with all statutory laws, rules, regulations, and company guidelines in the sale of these insurance products. It is the Agent's responsibility to maintain any books and records required under any federal, state, or company rule, regulation, or policy. It is also the Agent's responsibility to maintain and obtain any licenses and appointments required for the sale of these products.

AGENT-COMPANY RELATIONSHIP

The Company and the Agent mutually agree that this Independent Agent's Agreement is best served when the Agent is an independent contractor for all purposes. As an independent contractor, the Agent has the right to exercise independent judgment as to time, place and manner of soliciting insurance applications, servicing policyholders and otherwise carrying out the provisions of the Agreement. Furthermore, the Agent will pay all expenses in connection with his or her agency and has no authority to incur any indebtedness on behalf of the Company.

ERRORS AND OMISSIONS INSURANCE

The Agent agrees to maintain Errors and Omissions insurance with a liability limit of $1,000,000 or greater. The Agent also agrees to provide evidence of such coverage to the Company when requested. Failure to maintain adequate Errors and Omissions coverage may result in the suspension or termination of this Agreement.

INDEMNIFICATION

The Agent will defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Company from and against any and all losses, claims, demands, liabilities, costs, and expenses (including attorney's fees) asserted against or incurred or sustained by the Company arising out of any act or error by the Agent, or its employees, in the performance of the Agent's duties and obligations under this Agreement, any failure or omission by the Agent, or its employees, to perform any obligation under this Agreement, or the breach of any statute, law, regulation, agreement, covenant, or warranty by the Agent. The Company will defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Agent from and against any and all losses, claims, demands, liabilities, costs, and expenses (including attorney's fees) asserted against or incurred or sustained by the Agent arising out of any act or error by the Company, or its employees, in the performance of the Company's duties and obligations under this Agreement, any failure or omission by the Company, or its employees, to perform any obligation under this Agreement, or the breach of any statute, law, regulation, agreement, covenant, or warranty by the Company.

AGENT'S AUTHORITY

The Agent has no authority on behalf of the Company to bind risks of any kind or to make, modify or discharge contracts or to extend the time for paying any premiums. Furthermore, the Agent has no authority to make statements or representations on behalf of the Company which might alter or waive any of the Company's rights or to name any extra premiums or charges on any risk not listed in the Company's rate book.

Inasmuch as the insurance business is subject to changing laws, regulations and conditions, it is understood and agreed that the Company will prescribe rules, regulations, prices and terms under which it will insure risks. The Company retains the right to change, alter or amend the rules, regulations, prices and terms, including the right to limit, restrict or discontinue entirely the acceptance of applications on any policy, coverage or any line of insurance, at any time it deems advisable to do so without prior notice or consent of the Agent. Any such change, alteration, amendment or limitation shall become effective on the date specified by the Company.

LICENSE AND APPOINTMENT

You agree to maintain a state license in all states that you solicit business for the Company. You agree not to solicit business for the Company until you are properly licensed and/or appointed, unless allowed by law to do so in a given state.

If you have been appointed with the Company in a state and have not submitted any business from that state, your appointment with that state may be terminated.

COMPENSATION

The Company agrees to pay and the Agent agrees to accept the compensation provided in the attached schedule subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this schedule. The schedule and the general conditions included therein are incorporated by reference and are made a part of this Agreement. The Company maintains the unilateral right to alter or change this schedule by giving the Agent prior written notice which shall clearly set forth the effective date of these changes.

The Company is hereby granted a first lien upon the commissions and other sums which may become due under this Agreement or any other Agreement the Agent may have with the Company. If the Company, for any reason, refunds any premiums on any policy written by the Agent, or any policy for the which the Agent received compensation, or on any policy written by Agents assigned or recruited to the Company by the Agent, whether legally required to refund or not, the Company has the right to deduct, set off or request repayment of the previously paid commissions.

In order to qualify for commissions, as detailed in the schedule of commissions and general conditions, the Agent must have an active Independent Agent's Agreement. The Agent is not entitled to any commissions after the Agent's Agreement has been terminated except as provided in the vesting section.

Net Paid Annualized Life Production - Total annualized commissionable life premium issued and paid during any period of time, net of any charge backs or adjustments for lapses, paid not takens, cancellations, and other policy terminations. Net annualized life production excludes premium paid on business which replaces existing policies of the Company or its affiliates or subsidiaries, and excludes single premium life, annuities, non-individual ordinary life policies of any kind, or business written on the life of, or owned by, the Agent or members of the Agent's family.

In addition, if a decrease in face amount occurs on a Universal Life policy at any time in the 12 months following an increase, a charge back will occur and any amount added to net annualized life production because of the increase will be deducted in determining the current net annualized life production.

Commissionable Premium - For Universal Life policies, commissionable premium is the largest premium on which the Company will pay commissions at first year commission rates. For all other life policies, commissionable premium is the premium payable on the policy during the first policy year. Commissionable premiums are determined by the Company and published separately.

Annualized Premium - For Universal Life policies, annualized premium is the lesser of the commissionable premium or the periodic premium which the owner of the policy intends to pay multiplied by the number of periods in one year. For all other life policies, annualized premium is the commissionable premium multiplied by the number of periods in one year.

COMMISSIONS

Commissions paid to the Agent are based upon the applicable commission rates for the policy year in question applied to premiums received by the Company.

Premiums in excess of target received on Universal Life plans during the first policy year shall be eligible for commission based on the renewal rate described in the schedule of commission.

Any additional policies written as a result of a guaranteed insurability option or its equivalent will create commission for the Agent only if the Agent is active at the time the additional policy is written.

Commissions will not be allowed on premiums paid by automatic premium loan and on premium waived by operation of a premium waiver provision. If conversion is exercised during a disability waiver period, commissions shall be limited to renewals only.

The Company processes commission payments weekly via electronic fund transfer (EFT) for any amount credited to the Agent's commission account. If EFT is not chosen as payment option, The Company has the right to withhold check payment due the Agent until the amount is more than $500.00. The Company has the right to change this minimum and frequency of check payment at any time for all commissions payable and will notify the Agent by stating the new minimum on the Agent's commission statement.

The Agent will receive no further compensation of any kind on a policy which has lapsed for three (3) months or longer. Commissions shall be allowed to the reinstating Agent on policies reinstated after lapse for non-payment of premiums based on the type of policy, timing of the reinstatement and the personal involvement of the Agent.

If another Agent disputes a claim to a commission, the decision of the Company will be binding and conclusive.

If the Company returns a premium on a policy, the Agent will repay the Company on demand the amount of commission or advance received on the premium returned. Such amount can be recovered from future commission earnings.

The Company has the right to establish and change its rules and percentages for payment of commissions on policies that are replaced by or converted to new policies. Those written rules are hereby incorporated by reference.

VESTING

Upon cancellation of this Agreement, the Agent will be fully and immediately vested in the commission provided in the Schedule of Commissions included herein for policy years two through ten. However, if in any calendar year after the cancellation of this Agreement, the total amount payable under this and any prior Agreement falls below $100.00, no further commission will be payable under this Agreement or any prior Agreement and the Company will have no further obligations under these Agreements.

If the Agent (1) withholds funds, (2) embezzles funds, or (3) fails to comply with the insurance laws and regulations (either of the Company or of states in which the Agent operates), this Agreement will be canceled immediately and all rights to any future commissions will be forfeited.

If the Agent becomes totally and permanently disabled during the continuance of this contract, any commissions payable under this contract will continue to be paid subject to the $100.00 minimum explained above.

If the Agent's death is the cause of termination, the vested commissions will be paid to the Agent's estate subject to the $100.00 minimum explained above.

COMMISSION PAYMENT SPECIFICATIONS

Intra company replacements – As a general rule, the Company will not pay new first year commission on policies intended to replace either Protective Life Insurance Company policies or Empire General Insurance Company policies.

Internal replacements – As a general rule, the Company will not pay new first year commission on policies intended to replace an existing West Coast Life policy that has been in force for less than two years.

Persistency - An Agent must maintain 80% 25-month persistency. If the Agent has not yet established a 25-month persistency, the Agent must maintain 90% 13-month persistency. The 13-month and 25-month persistency measure by volume (face amount) and premium will be used by the Company. This will be calculated in accordance with the Company's current rules.

Term Conversions – Please consult the Company Home Office for policy concerning treatment of commission. Conversion during a period of disability waiver shall be limited only to a Non-par Whole Life policy form.

Face Amount Increases - For increases in face amount on Universal Life policies, the Company will pay first year commission, based on the commission rate applicable at the time of original issue, on the increased portion of the commissionable premium paid within the commissionable period following the increase. Revised commissionable premiums will be computed as if the policy were being issued on the effective date of the face amount increase.

In the event of a decrease in the face amount at any time during the twelve months following an increase, no further first year commissions will be payable. Face amount increases will receive first year commissions only to the extent that they exceed any prior increase both in face amount and commissionable premium.

Rider and Supplementary Benefit Rates - These rates are the same as those applied to the policy to which they are attached, except as may be specified in the Schedule of Commissions.

Temporary Flat Extra Ratings - These ratings are non-commissionable.

INDEBTEDNESS

Any and all cash advances or other payments, including annualized commissions, made to the Agent by the Company, will create a debtor-creditor relationship. As security, the Company has a first lien upon any commissions or other amounts payable to the Agent under this or any other Agreement between the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates and the Agent. The Company may at any time deduct from any commissions or other amounts payable to the Agent any debts owed to the Company by the Agent, or any debts owed to the Company arising out of business written by any Agent which resulted in compensation to the Agent. The Agent will be responsible for all legal fees, court costs and collection fees incurred by the Company in the process of collecting any indebtedness.

The Company reserves the right to chargeback the Agent for any costs associated with medical testing of a proposed insured ordered at the Agent or BGAs request in instances where the Company does not receive a formal application on the proposed insured.

AGREEMENT CANCELLATION

This agreement shall continue for an unspecified term during the mutual pleasure of the Agent and the Company until either party elects to cancel this Agreement for any reason. Cancellation shall become effective upon the mailing of the written notice of cancellation to the other party at the last known business address. This Agreement will cancel automatically upon the death of the Agent.

ASSIGNMENTS

The Agent shall make no assignments of any rights or interest under this Agreement, including benefits or compensation, without the written consent of an officer of the Company. Any changes in the Agent's authority are permitted only when they appear in writing signed by an officer of the Company.

ADVERTISING

The Agent agrees not to conduct any advertising whatsoever, including, without limitation, television, radio, print, media, internet, computer or electronic demonstrations or illustrations involving the Company, its name or products without obtaining prior written approval of the Company.

COMMUNICATION

The Agent authorizes the Company to provide the Agent with any information that the Company would send by ordinary mail, fax and may also be sent via any electronic means as long as the Agent is currently appointed with the Company.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on Line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Employer identification number

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. (See the instructions on page 4.)

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS, must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

U.S. person. Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.

In 3 above, if applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

For federal tax purposes, you are considered a person if you are:

- An individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States, or
- Any estate (other than a foreign estate) or trust. See Regulations sections 301.7701-6(a) and 7(a) for additional information.

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,

- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien.

Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the recipient has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments (after December 31, 2002). This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 4 for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the "Name" line. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA)" name on the "Business name" line.

Limited liability company (LLC). If you are a single-member LLC (including a foreign LLC with a domestic owner) that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Treasury regulations section 301.7701-3, enter the owner's name on the "Name" line. Enter the LLC's name on the "Business name" line. Check the appropriate box for your filing status (sole proprietor, corporation, etc.), then check the box for "Other" and enter "LLC" in the space provided.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required federal tax documents on the "Name" line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name" line.

Note. You are requested to check the appropriate box for your status (individual/sole proprietor, corporation, etc.).

Exempt From Backup Withholding

If you are exempt, enter your name as described above and check the appropriate box for your status, then check the "Exempt from backup withholding" box in the line following the business name, sign and date the form.

Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

Exempt payees. Backup withholding is not required on any payments made to the following payees:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2),
 2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities,
 3. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities,
 4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities, or
 5. An international organization or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.
- Other payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:
6. A corporation,
 7. A foreign central bank of issue,
 8. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States,
 9. A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission,
 10. A real estate investment trust,
 11. An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940,
 12. A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a),
 13. A financial institution,
 14. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian, or
 15. A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947.

The chart below shows types of payments that may be exempt from backup withholding. The chart applies to the exempt recipients listed above, 1 through 15.

IF the payment is for . . .	THEN the payment is exempt for . . .
Interest and dividend payments	All exempt recipients except for 9
Broker transactions	Exempt recipients 1 through 13. Also, a person registered under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 who regularly acts as a broker
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt recipients 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 ¹	Generally, exempt recipients 1 through 7 ²

² However, the following payments made to a corporation (including gross proceeds paid to an attorney under section 6045(f), even if the attorney is a corporation) and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees; and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-owner LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited liability company (LLC) on page 2), enter your SSN (or EIN, if you have one). If the LLC is a corporation, partnership, etc., enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.socialsecurity.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer ID Numbers under Related Topics. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting www.irs.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Writing "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if items 1, 4, and 5 below indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). Exempt recipients, see Exempt From Backup Withholding on page 2.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons who must file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, and certain other income paid to you, mortgage interest you paid, the acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA, or Archer MSA or HSA. The IRS uses the numbers for identification purposes and to help verify the accuracy of your tax return. The IRS may also provide this information to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation, and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. possessions to carry out their tax laws. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Payers must generally withhold 28% of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to a payer. Certain penalties may also apply.

Producer's Guide to Anti-Money Laundering

You are receiving this because you are licensed and appointed with one of the Protective Life Corporation family of insurance companies. The Companies have adopted an Anti-Money Laundering Program (AML program) in order to comply with new federal anti-money laundering regulations.

As an insurance producer, your skills and services help your clients achieve financial success and security. Because you are on the front lines of a multi-billion dollar industry, you are in a unique position not only to serve your clients, but also to serve the country by helping prevent money laundering and the financing of terrorist activities. You have an important role to play in our AML program. As a person who deals directly with customers, you will often be in a critical position to obtain information regarding the customer, the customer's source of funds for the products you sell, and the customer's reasons for purchasing an insurance product.

In order to sell individual annuities and life insurance, the company's AML program requires you to:

- Receive periodic anti-money laundering training. Protective has contracted with LIMRA to provide your training at no cost to you. Please log on to <https://aml.limra.com> and follow the instructions. You will need a user name and password, both in lowercase. Your user name consists of the first four letters of your last name and the last six digits of your social security number. For example, the user name for Bill Smith whose social security number is 123-45-6789 would be: smit456789. Your password is your last name. Bill Smith's password is smith. Please note that once you log in, you will be asked to change your password which must be at least 8 characters, one of which must be numeric.
 - You should complete this training as soon as possible to ensure that we can continue to process your clients' applications for annuities and life insurance. LIMRA will automatically keep us updated about whether you have completed this required training or not.

- Ensure that all information requested on the product application and associated documents is accurate and complete. This may include requiring you to verify the identity of the policyholder by reviewing an unexpired government issued picture ID of the customer. In some cases, that information will need to be included in space provided on the Agent's Report page of the application. In addition, you should notify us if a customer resists providing an ID or any other information requested. We must maintain records of this information for as long as the contract remains in force and for five years thereafter.
- Notify us if you detect any money laundering red flags, so that the Company can determine whether a Suspicious Activity Report (SAR) must be filed with the U.S. Department of the Treasury. Red flags can include:
 - The purchase of a product that appears to be inconsistent with a customer's needs.
 - The purchase or funding of a product that appears to exceed a customer's known income or liquid net worth.
 - Any attempted unusual method of payment, particularly by cash or cash equivalents such as money orders or cashier's checks.
 - Payment of a large amount broken into small amounts.
 - Little or no concern by a customer for the investment performance of an insurance product, but much concern about the early termination features of the product.
 - The reluctance by a customer to provide identifying information, or the provision of information that seems fictitious.
 - Any other activity which you think is suspicious.
- Contact the Life and Annuity Division's Chief Compliance Officer, Gary Carroll, at 1-800-866-9933, ext. 3246, immediately, in the event you observe any of the above red flags or any other suspicious activity. It is the Companies' responsibility to respond to any inquiry regarding the subject matter of a Suspicious Activity Report (SAR). You must not, under any circumstances, disclose the fact that a SAR has been filed or considered or disclose the contents of a SAR to the subject of a SAR or to any third party.
- Advise customers that only the following types of payment may be accepted.
 - Checks
 - Pre-authorized bank draft
 - Debit of bank account (available currently only on recurring premiums after the initial premium)
 - Credit Card (initial premium only in limited situations)

Additional details concerning our AML program will be posted on our Companies' websites.

The Companies and their producers share an important responsibility to comply with the Companies' program and all applicable anti-money laundering laws. We take this matter very seriously and are relying on you to help us in this effort to help our country in its fight against money laundering and terrorist activities. Failure to do so could result in disciplinary action against you and/or the Companies with which you are appointed.
